GALA FETE AT JENSEN SILVER WEDDING

On Saturday, October 26th Mr. and Mrs. Chris G. M. Jensen held "open house" at their farm home, the occasion being their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. On Sunday evening friends and neighbors gathered at the Church basement to honour Mr. and Mrs. Jensen. The basement was decorated in a color scheme of red white and blue. Mr. Mons Hansen, Mayor of Standard, was the chairman for the evening. Various musical numbers and speeches were enjoyed after which Mr. William Myrnes presented the honored couple with a lovely chest of flat silver. Coffee was then served.

Mr. and Mrs. Jensen were married in the Standard church by Rev. Hansen who sent them greetings and best wishes from Denmark. Mr. and Mrs. Jensen's son Simon and daughter Margaret were home for the occasion.

Above are Mr. and Mrs. Mary Lounsbury, of Strathmore and Nightingale, whose golden wedding was celebrated by a host of friends last week in the Nightingale Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Lounsbury have lived in the Nightingale district since 1917, until their retirement a few years ago, and moving into Strathmore. Courtesy, Calgary Herald.

TOWN COUNCIL HOLDS MEETING

All Councillors but one were present on Tuesday night at the first meeting for three weeks, and with the Mayor in the chair, the Town's business was handled with despatch.

Two lots on the South side of Fifth Street between Second and Third Avenues were sold to Mr. George Bates. A certain amount of discussion was held as to the necessity for maintaining a standard on the houses being erected in Town, in order to help eliminate the possibility of its becoming a shanty-town, and suggestion was made that it might be wise to have a building code.

A discussion was held on the financial benefits to be derived from the policing of the town, and it was agreed that the Town was doing as well as it could at present.

An application was received for more street lighting at the W. I. D., and this matter was referred to the next meeting.

STAG PARTY HELD IN HONOR L. JONES

A group of friends gathered in the Dining Room of the Memorial Hall on Friday evening last to congratulate Lester Jones on his recent marriage and to wish him and his bride good luck. An informal social party was held, and enjoyed by all.

During the evening, T. S. Hughes, on behalf of those present, and many old friends unable to attend, presented Lester with a handsome tri-lite and shade, expressing at the same time the pleasure of the group at being thus able to fete him. Mr. Hughes spoke of the high regard of the community for Lester Jones, who has lived in this community for the greater part of his life, and who was, as Spence suggested, very nearly the longest resident of Strathmore present.

Following the presentation "For he's a Jolly Good Fellow" was sung, and was followed with three cheers.

A Call to Peace

Edwin Markham

Live and let live was the call of old,
The call of the world when the world was cold;
The call of men when they pulled apart;
The call of the race with a chill on its heart.

But live and help live is the cry of the new,
The cry of the world with the dream showing through;
The cry of the brotherhood rising to birth,
The cry of the Christ for a comrade-like earth.

GORDONS OBSERVE GOLDEN WEDDING

By A. E. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Gordon celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary in the Cluny Community Hall on the evening of Monday October 28th. The guests were received by the bride and groom of fifty five years ago. Mrs. Gordon wore an Altex blue dress and a corsage of pink roses.

With Mr. Alfred Gordon eldest son acting as master of ceremonies, there was a short programme. Musical selections were given by Mrs. Spence Hughes of Strathmore, Barbara Raymond, Audrey Jones and Dorothy Gordon. Cecile Riley and Eileen Nowicki gave a proposal as it was done fifty years ago and some of the ladies of the community had a very humorous mock wedding.

The hundred and fifty guests were seated at banquet tables decorated with gold and bronze mums and lighted candles. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon and all of their children and grandchildren were seated at the head table which was centered with a three tiered wedding cake.

NIGHTINGALE

—By Mrs. F. H.

Mrs. Don Dougan was hostess to the Woman's Institute at their regular meeting at the hall last Friday. Suggestions representing song titles were given in answer to roll call. Some very unique ideas were used and the guessing was not too easy. There was considerable discussion about the Bazaar planned for November 22. Committee members were appointed to handle different departments, and a splendid evening's entertainment is planned. A good orchestra will supply music for a dance. The ladies were very pleased with the cutlery purchased through Mrs. Daphne Osborne. Two birthday raffles were held and Mrs. Stouley and Kathleen Harriman were the winners. Mrs. Dougan Sr. was welcomed as she had been away for some time. A delicious lunch was served at the close of a very pleasant meeting.

Mrs. John Hendricks returned last Saturday. She had been on a visit to her old home in Indiana for a month.

Harry Tschirter, who had been very ill in the General Hospital in Calgary, is home again but is still very weak.

Miss Lois Kinney returned after a stay in the hospital where she parted with her appendix. She is feeling fine again.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Hildahl and children of Morrin, also Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Miller of Rockyford were week end visitors at the Harriman home.

Miss Kathleen Harriman substituted for Miss Grace Way this week as Miss Way is ill.

Mr. Dirk Jansen, who has been renewing acquaintances here the past two weeks, returned to Calgary Tuesday. He expects to return to Holland for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Murray returned from B.C. and are visiting with Mrs. Murray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Furr.

Mr. Gus Petersen and his daughter Christena of Delta visited Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Phillips on Monday.

Many friends called on Mrs. Charles Christensen on Monday to congratulate her on her birthday.

Miss Betty Angel attended the teachers convention this week.

Halloween was very quiet in the Chancellor district. The children visited the town houses doing their songs and dances for treats.

John Coldwell and Miss Leona Brunker of Calgary were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Mann. John will be remembered by many as the young lad who delighted us at social functions, with his beautiful voice, singing songs whenever asked. He served one and a half years with the Canadian Navy, overseas. Since his discharge he is back taking vocal lessons and also singing in the choir at Knox United Church where his mother has sung for twenty years. Good luck John.

Ronnie Stundon of Calgary visited the Phillips for a few days.

Miss Betty Angel entertained the children and parents at a Halloween party in the school house on Wednesday. "Spooks' Haven" was very spooky with its bats, owls and other weird creatures. A very merry time was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Rogers are holidaying at Victoria, B. C. visiting Mr. Rogers two sisters there.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Hans Reiffenstein is in the General Hospital Calgary undergoing an operation. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Pep Hansen and family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wheatley on Sunday.

Mr. J. M. Wheatley attended the municipal district meeting in Calgary on Monday.

ding cake, golden mums and tall white tapers.

The toast to the honored couple was proposed by Mr. Lynn Barrett, an old friend of the family and responded to by Alfred Gordon.

Mr. Beattie with well chosen words presented the happy couple with an occasional chair, an end table and a lamp as a gift from the community and Alfred again replied thanking those present for the beautiful gift and also other lovely presents. Telegrams and cards of congratulations were read.

The gift from the family was a Chesterfield suite.

The party was concluded by the singing of Auld Lang Syne, and the many good wishes of all those present.

This happy occasion was also a family reunion for among those present were the eldest son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gordon of Seattle and the second daughter, her husband and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Toot, Gordon and Margaret of Attica, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon were married in Weeping Water, Nebraska in 1896 and came to the Alderside district in 1910 and to Cluny in 1923.

Mrs. Barrett, of Alderside who with her husband motored up for the occasion was also present at the time of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon's wedding in Nebraska.

WEDDING

CREIGHTON—WARD

The Cluny Hotel was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Sunday, November 3rd when Elizabeth Agnes Ward of Brooks and Nova Scotia became the bride of Wm. E. Creighton of Brooks, formerly of Cluny. The ceremony was a double ring and performed by Rev. W. Selter. Given in marriage by Mr. Lee Haymond the bride wore an afternoon dress of blue velvet, a cap of tulle and flowers and corsage of rose buds. Miss Barbara Haymond was bridesmaid and wore a frock of shocking pink and a cap of sequin and veiling.

Mr. Frank Nowicki was best man. Mrs. Peter Jelski played the wedding music.

After the ceremony about thirty guests sat down to a wedding breakfast and during the evening friends called to offer congratulations.

For travelling to Calgary where a short honeymoon will be spent the bride changed to a green wool dress topped by a fur coat and a green hat trimmed with fur and brown accessories.

On their return the happy couple will reside in Brooks.

I couldn't help but think how nice our hall looked on the night of the Gordon party. Up to then the only functions held in the main part of the hall have been dances, but on this particular night, when the three tables the full length of the hall and the head table across the one end were set with china and gleaming silver and beautiful flowers and candles it looked a different place and the men who were responsible for the building must have felt a wonderful glow of satisfaction. Once more we say "Hats off to the community spirit which made this possible.

Mrs. Ronald Clark and son Kenneth spent Friday and Saturday in Calgary.

The teaching staff attended the convention in Calgary on Thursday and Friday. Mrs. Winters going on to her home in Provost on Saturday.

HUSSAR NOTES

by M. C. B.

On Friday afternoon, about fifty relatives and friends of Mrs. Ester Hood, gathered to honor her by giving her a shower. The committee in charge consisted of Mesdames E. F. Blake, R. Warburton, B. Dundas, and B. Snyder. The program was as follows: two lovely songs by Mrs. Sigrid Knudsen, and comic readings by Mrs.

E. J. Bell. Then the basket containing the gifts was brought in by Myrtle Blake, and Ralph Montgomery, a miniature bride and groom. The young ladies present assisted the bride in the unwrapping of the many and useful gifts. Mrs. Hood gave a very appropriate speech of thanks and invited her friends to visit her and her husband. Mr. Robert Hood, at their home in Calgary. Mrs. Hood was Esther Brown, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Brown, and a graduate of the Calgary Normal School. The very best wishes of the community go to her, one of Hussar's native daughters. A most delicious lunch was served by the hostesses assisted by several other friends.

The farmers of the Wintaring Hills district are very glad to be able to say that most all of their threshing has been done. It was a tough fall; combining and all fall work had to be done between storms.

REMEMBRANCE DAY

Next Sunday and Monday, Services in Remembrance of Fallen Heroes of World War I and II will be held not only Fallen Heroes, but those in hospitals throughout the land, who are paying the penalty of years of conflict.

Much thought has been given throughout the previous weeks to the proper commemoration of this solemn occasion.

While these preparations are being solemnly made, there are references over the radio, in the press, and by individuals of the possibility, or as some state the probability of a third World War.

What is wrong—or why the weakness in humanity—if in every second or third decade, many of the best of our mankind have to lose their lives, or suffer disabilities which impair their efficiency for the remainder of their lives.

We do well to pay sincere and noble tribute to the many who sacrificed their hopes for the future, their life, and all they held dear—that freedom should not be wiped from our land.

This is well—but we must not stop there.

With all the force of a determined, resolute populace, we must with the same united action that the men used in military training take up the torch flung to us by the men whose memory we commemorate, and achieve freedom from war for the world.

It can be done—if mankind is so minded.

Price Controls

The War Time Prices and Trade Board has worked an inestimable benefit in controlling prices in Canada, and it is greatly to be desired that the control be not lifted.

One needs only to compare the prices of commodities in the U. S. with those prevailing in Canada to realize what the W.P.T.B. has done for Canada.

Despite the criticism of the present government on various issues—no one can deny the benefit Canadians have shared by Hon. Donald Gordon's Price Control legislation.

position of last year.

A motion was made that the group co-operate with the Intermediate Hockey Club and the rink management throughout the season, and was passed. Following this, a tentative draft of the rules of the rink prepared last year was read to the boys and this also was endorsed.

Mention was made of the possibility of arranging inclusion in a school league, which would provide the most interesting form of competition and a suggested league in this area was Strathmore, Carleton Place, Kathryn, Irriana, Beloeur, Swallow.

President of the Intermediate Club for this year is Mr. Albert Mercer with Bill Woodliffe as vice president.

Following service with the Club since 1925 as secretary treasurer, Mr. Leonard Hill this year tendered his resignation, and suggested it was someone else's turn now. For his twenty-one years of service, the group moved a hearty vote of thanks to Leonard, expressing their sincere appreciation of all his tireless work.

Election of a secretary treasurer was left to the executive, to take care of in the near future.

Other members of the executive are Messrs. Art Kimmett, Ray Wilkenson, A. Chase, T. S. Hughes and Albert Kimmett. Manager and coach of the team is Mr. Jack Crellin.

The executive was asked to look into the possibilities of being included in a league, possibly working out from Calgary. They will check into this matter within a few days.

The financial picture of the Intermediate body showed need of a little bolstering and arrangements are under consideration to make and raffie a cake, as was done last year.

LANGDON

By G. E. W.

There is to be a social evening in the hall this Friday evening, November 8th in honor of the Rev. Aldridge and Rev. Hunt. It is to be a farewell to Rev. Aldridge (who retires) as minister here in Langdon, he has served the district for a number of years. It will also serve to welcome Rev. Hunt the new minister. It is hoped that as many as possible will turn out for this occasion. The notice is very short owing to the fact that the community had to decide on a suitable date.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Windstrom and boys left this week for a months holiday visiting relatives in the States.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Watson had as their guests for a few short days last week the former's mother and sister from Courich.

Mrs. Whitney and Stewart were in Calgary for a day last week.

Miss Aileen Brander and Miss Eva Thomas visited with their parents, over the week end, reporting back to their schools in time to ring the bell for class on Monday morning.

Gordon Speechley who had the misfortune to hurt his leg some time ago, is back again under the doctors care. This time he finds the leg is fractured and he has to have it put in a cast. Gordon will be at home for at least three weeks.

The first card game of the 500 series was held in the hall on Monday evening, October 28th, when there were nine tables in play. The winners of the evening were, Ladies 1st, Mrs. R.H. Blue, 2nd, Mrs. Ed Snider, Gents 1st, Mr. L. Bittle, 2nd, Mr. W. Braden.

Mr. and Mrs. Moe spent several days last week at the home of their daughter, Mrs. G. Thubron and family at Red Deer.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Winstrom and George Winstrom visited with relatives at Carlsland and Madden for a few days.

As part of the United Church service on Sunday, Rev. Hunt showed pictures showing some of the work Rev. and Mrs. Jolliffe are doing as missionaries in China. Garfield Anderson contributed a very nice piano solo. The next service will be held on November 17th at 11:30 p.m.

The members of the L.O.O.F. in Langdon and district held their first meeting of the season in the hall on Wednesday evening, October 30th. Mr. Joe Nicholson, Noble Grand, opened the meeting. Some business matters were discussed and dealt with. The next meeting will be held in the Hall on Wednesday evening, November 13.

Don't forget the Ladies Aid supper on Friday evening, November 15th, in the hall.

Mrs. George Whitney has been confined to her home suffering with a bad cold. We hope she will soon be feeling better.

(Experimental Farm News)

Grey wooded soils are all characterized by a low level of organic matter in their original conditions. Lack of sufficient organic matter causes these soils to be difficult to work and leaves them very prone to puddling and baking. It is also the cause in a large part for the lack of bacterial activity, which is necessary to make food available to plants, says W. T. Burns, Dominion Experimental Station, Prince George, B.C. In summary, it is largely the lack of organic matter that makes these soils less productive than other soils of adequate organic content under similar climatic conditions.

The first step towards improving the productivity is to add organic matter in one form or another. The most obvious is probably that of applying barnyard manure. In most areas where grey wooded soils are found barnyard manure is of no commercial value. Through its use has invariably increased the yields of the subsequent crops on grey wooded soils, it is too often found wasted in piles in some corner of the farm. Surplus straw and other similar crop remnants generally accorded no value is better returned to the land than to be burned or left in a pile in some corner. Unfortunately, there is seldom, if ever, sufficient of these materials to cover all of the farm in the quantity required. In some cases, peat from adjacent bogs has been hauled and dumped on the land. This has been found satisfactory to increase the organic content of these soils but it is usually rather expensive to haul in proportion to the value of the crops being grown.

One other method of increasing the amount of organic matter is that of growing leguminous crops. There are no dependent on the limited soil supply of nitrogen for their needs as a result of the nitrogen fixing bacteria which they harbor on their root systems. Thus they are able to make good growth on grey wooded soils despite the lack of organic matter. After they have been grown and the land prepared for other crops, they leave behind a heavy root which contributes much toward increased organic content. As a result the yield of the crop following is increased. This is accomplished in addition to harvesting a valuable hay or seed crop of the legume being used, though in some instances of extreme soil conditions, it may be desirable to plow under the top growth for green manure as well. Such a method of adding organic matter for soil improvement, unlike the previously mentioned method, does not have limitations with respect to the size of the farm. Since a crop may also be harvested, the farm is kept in full production while it is being improved.

Legumes for soil improvement should be used in short rotations to obtain the maximum benefit in the shortest space of time. That is, the legume whether naturally short or long lived, should not be allowed to occupy one piece of ground for too long a period. In most cases the maximum benefit has been obtained in from two to four years after which the stand should be plowed up and reseeded. This practice is usually in keeping with maximum production as well.

Except on soils almost devoid of organic matter, the improvement of productivity is not as rapidly effected by the use of legumes as is the case with barnyard manure. Nevertheless, it has been found that over a period of years, a gradual increase in the yield of grain is obtained when grown in a rotation including a legume on grey wooded soils. In contrast, where legumes are not used in rotation, a downward trend in yield is experienced. When the available barnyard manure and the use of legumes are combined in the rotation, the maximum soil and yield improvement is derived.

SEED SUPPLIES FOR 1947

Yes, we are already thinking of seed grain for next spring. It's not too early either. This year, as for the past seven years, the co-operative arrangement whereby registered and certified seed is made available to farmers through elevator men will be in operation. Price lists are, or soon will be, in the hands of every elevator agent or the member companies of the Alberta Crop Improvement Association. Seed is also available from other grain elevator agents on similar terms. A farmer requiring seed of this quality to improve his crops or for seed production need only to see his elevator man to place an order, and should do so at an early date if he wishes to be sure of getting the variety and grade he wants. The supply of the top grades is always limited and all grades of some varieties are likely to go quickly.

For those who do not desire registered or certified seed, indications are that there is no large section of the province in which, despite frost, drought or other hazard, there will not be seed on the farms for general seeding in 1947. There are some comparatively small areas so affected, but seed supplies are available within easy trucking distance in most cases. The problem of seed supplies should not be difficult, but when a farmer must buy seed he should endeavor to get only high quality seed of a recommended variety. This can't be assured only by arranging for it early in the season while it is possible to pick and choose.

Mrs. J. Robinson returned last week from an extended visit in the east. She reports having a wonderful time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Kennedy of London Ontario arrived Sunday morning to visit her father W. W. Brown and family. Mr. Kennedy remained overnight only a short time before going west to look after business interests. Mr. and Mrs. A. Brown accompanied Mrs. Kennedy to Banff Thursday.

Wednesday afternoon a large group of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. C. Kilcup for farewell tea in honor of Mrs. Anna Roueche, who with her family will soon leave for her future home in the north. Friendly visiting filled the afternoon hours, and a delicious lunch was served by the hostess and helpers. The guest of honor was presented with a beautiful white spread and pillow cases, as a remembrance from her many friends.

Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Wilson returned Thursday from Toronto where he has been taking graduate work. They spent a few days with his parents Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Wilson, and left Saturday with their boys, for their home in Calgary.

Friday evening a large crowd of friends gathered at Meadowbrook Hall in a farewell gathering for Mr. and Mrs. A. Blais who have bought a farm near Carleton Place and will soon be leaving this neighborhood. They have lived in this community all their lives, and will be greatly missed for they have been very active in all public undertakings. On behalf of the many friends Mr. A. F. Wilson presented the guests of honor with a handsome easy chair and stool. Archie responded in his usual capable manner. Lunch was served, and the evening was a complete success. Dancing to Steads orchestra was enjoyed during the evening.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. C. R. McIntyre entertained at a tea in honor of Mrs. W. Kennedy of London, Ontario.

Mr. E. Bolinger and infant son returned from the Calgary hospital Saturday. They will stay with her parents Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hayes several days.

STOBART NEWS

A few friends and neighbors were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Nels Jensen a week ago Wednesday night prior to their departure Sunday for Denmark. We all wish for them bon-voyage.

Miss Anne L. Kalmakoff, R.N. of Stobart, recently arrived from Kamloops for a few days visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Alex Kalmakoff. She leaves soon for Winnipeg by T.C.A. where she has been accepted as Air-Stewardess with the Trans-Canada Air-lines. We all congratulate her and wish her every success in her new venture.

Mrs. Geo. McLean attended the funeral of her brother Vern's wife at Drumheller last Monday. Mrs. Vern Sanders passed away suddenly at Drumheller last Thursday. Our deepest sympathy goes out to her young husband as they have only been married seven months.

It is baskets, not caskets, that have been removed from price controls in the United States. Through a typographical error, the Associated Press reported the item erroneously.

Sarah MacMullen of Calgary General Hospital staff was home for the week end.

Dear Sirs:
The shortage of materials for line extension is national. We shall now have to delay your shipment again. We are doing all we can to help send the material we know you urgently need.

A Pole Line Equipment Co.

This kind of mail explains the delays in new service connections--even though we are now and have been making service connections at a more rapid pace than we did before the war. Equipment is even harder to get now than during the war -- we have not been able to keep up with our orders for new connections, and new transmission line construction is also being delayed. We are doing all we can -- and thank you for your patience.

home and breaking down the sidewalk. Steps will be taken to make this driving impossible.

Mr. B. Donovan, who purchased the aerial pole between Dr. Giffen's and Roberts' Meat Market is to be requested to eliminate the wires presently stretching over the pathway.

A report was given on the fire hose, following the recent fire practise, and a suggestion made that it is easier to maintain and much easier to lay pipes above the ground than fire hose, in addition to being much cheaper. This will be brought up for further consideration following the plebiscite on the water issue next year, and action will depend in the main on the outcome of the plebiscite. If water is voted in, more hydrants will be installed, and further hose or pipeline may be rendered unnecessary.

In connection with the assessments on all new buildings in town, it was agreed to have Mr. W. D. Milner, City Assessor for Calgary, come out sometime in the near future and fix assessments for the next year.

Irrigation accounts for the town irrigation of gardens, done last summer still showed three accounts unpaid, it was reported. Following comments as to the unnecessary difficulty and delay in collecting these accounts, especially when the Town certainly did not make anything on the project, it was proposed that no water be spread on gardens next summer if the accounts were not paid in advance at the Town Hall. This proposal met with ready acceptance.

The intake pipe for the fire line in the lake is now dredged five feet deep, it was reported, this work having been accomplished last week by the Beaver Construction Company, of Calgary, as they passed through to the east.

Accounts to the amount of $169.00 were passed.
